SUPERVISION TRAINING COURSE 1

Presented by Margaret Morrell

Due to popular demand the Professional Education Committee of the SA Branch of the AASW will again be bringing Margaret Morrell to Adelaide to run a Supervision Workshop for Supervisors. This will be held on Monday 11 October–Wednesday 13 October 2010

- The course will cover
- What supervision is and what it should be
 - How to set up the supervision relationship
 - The why and how of supervision contracting
 - How to conduct a supervision session
 - The core supervisory skills (Heron's model)
 - Reflective practice and adult learning principles
 - Managing ethical dilemmas in supervision
 - Evaluating the supervision relationship

This course is suitable for both new and experienced supervisors who want to learn about models and frameworks of supervision and to extend and improve their supervision skills

Venue: Education Development Centre, Milner Street, Hindmarsh

Places are limited to 18 Participants for each workshop.

Please book by telephoning 8463 5911 before Thursday 30 August to qualify for early bird payment, or Thursday 30 September as final day for registration.

Following the booking, post your registration to the AASW (SA Branch) office at Education Development Centre, 4 Milner Street, Hindmarsh SA 5007. Bookings are not confirmed until payment is received.

Please note: It is essential that you attend all three days of this course, as each day builds on the last. As we often have people on waiting lists, please consider your colleagues and don't take a place unless you can attend all three days.

Lunch is NOT Included
