AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

A. INTRODUCTION

Name of the Company

1. The name of the Company is Australian Association of Social Workers Limited.

Preamble

2. The Company is the national professional representative body of social workers in Australia. As such it has a Governance Charter, Code of Ethics and Practice Standards that contain principles agreed to by all Members. These principles guide all social work practice.

Objects of the Company

3. The Objects for which the Company is established are to promote and advocate for the profession of social work, advance social justice, uphold standards and build capacity of Members. The Company pursues these Objects through a range of activities and services that may include but are not limited to:
 - a) advocating for the pursuit of social justice and for structural, cultural and environmental measures to optimise the social, emotional and physical well-being of individuals, families and broader communities;
 - b) advancing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander social work;
 - c) enhancing the public and professional recognition and identity of social work;
 - d) representing and advocating for the interests of Members;
 - e) upholding responsibilities for the regulation of the profession including establishing, monitoring and improving practice and ethical standards;
 - f) contributing to the development of social work knowledge and research;
 - g) developing and reviewing the education standards for social workers;
 - h) accrediting social work courses at tertiary institutions, the completion of which satisfy the education standards necessary for admission as a Member of the Association;
 - i) promoting and facilitating Members' professional development and lifelong learning;
 - j) collaborating with international colleagues; and
 - k) doing anything ancillary to the Objects.

Code of Ethics

4. The Company must maintain a written Code of Ethics and ByLaws on ethics. The ByLaws on ethics will set out:
 - a) procedures for the promotion and maintenance of the principles outlined in the code of ethics; and
 - b) procedures for dealing with matters of ethical and professional standards.
5. The Company will review the code of ethics at least once every seven years and the review will be presented to the next general meeting after completion of the review.
6. Copies of the Code of Ethics are to be available to Members free of charge.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

Powers of the Company

7. The Company has the powers of a body corporate and a natural person.

Income of the Company

8. The income and property of the Company will be applied solely to further any of the Objects of the Company as set out in the Constitution. No income or property may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise to the Members of the Company. However the Constitution does not:
- a) prevent the payment in good faith:
 - i) of remuneration to any of the Company's employees or to any other person in return for any services actually provided to the Company; or
 - ii) for goods supplied to the Company in the ordinary course of business; or

 - b) prevent the Company:
 - i) repaying money borrowed from any Member of the Company; or
 - ii) paying interest on money borrowed from any Member of the Company; or
 - iii) reimbursing out-of-pocket expenses to any Director of the Company; or
 - iv) paying reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any Member of the Company; or
 - (v) paying reasonable remuneration for their ordinary services as Directors provided that the requirements of the Constitution as outlined under Clauses J8, J9 and J10 are adhered to.

Liability

9. The liability of Members is limited.

Every Member and each person who was a Member within one (1) year of them ceasing to be a Member undertakes to contribute an amount not exceeding $50 to the property of the Company in the event of its being wound up while the person is a Member, if required for:

- a) payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company provided that for each person who was a Member the debts and liabilities were contracted before they ceased to be a Member;
- b) payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up;
- c) payment for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

Subsidiary companies

10. The Company may own and operate subsidiary companies and other legal entities to further any of the objectives of the Company as set out in the Constitution.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

B. MEMBERSHIP

Member eligibility

1. A person who is not, on 1 January 2016, a Member of the Company is eligible to apply to become a Member if:
 - a) that person has completed a social work course at an Australian tertiary institution which
 - i) at the time of completion was a course accredited by the Company, or
 - ii) would have been accepted as sufficient to be admitted to membership at that time; or
 - b) the person satisfies the Company that the course which the person has completed outside Australia required completion of units of a standard which would have satisfied the requirements for accreditation of that course at an Australian tertiary institution;

Student Member Eligibility

2. A person who is enrolled as a student in an accredited course is eligible to apply to become a student Member of the Company for so long as that person is enrolled in the accredited course.

Application for membership

3. To apply for membership, a person submits an application to the Membership Officer; the details of the membership application are contained in the ByLaws.

Categories of membership

4. The Board may by resolution establish in the ByLaws categories and levels of membership and student membership and determine the additional eligibility requirements and obligations for each such category and level.
5. A Member may not transfer to any other person the rights and privileges of membership attached to her or his category of membership.

Rights of Members

 - a) All financial Members are entitled to attend general meetings, address general meetings, vote on matters before the Members and be nominated and appointed a Director, subject to this Constitution.
 - b) The Company may prescribe separate post-nominal letters for Members and student Members in the manner and subject to the conditions set out in the ByLaws.

Appeals against membership refusal

7. Any applicant refused membership may appeal. The procedure for appeals is set out in the ByLaws.

Termination and suspension of membership

8. A person ceases to be a Member of the Company if the person:
 - a) Resigns in writing;
 - b) Dies;
 - c) After receiving a notice from the Company requiring the Member to pay any overdue membership subscription or other amount due to the Company, fails to pay the required amount within the time stipulated;

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

- d) Is convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment for a period greater than one (1) year;
 - e) Is expelled in accordance with Clause B9.
9. The Member can be suspended or expelled in accord with the procedures contained in the AASW ethics ByLaws.
10. If, following admission to membership, it is found that a Member is ineligible, that person's membership will cease immediately.

Re-admission to membership

11. The Board will reinstate to membership a person who has shown cause that they should be reinstated in a manner as described in the ByLaws.

Membership fees

12. Each Member of the Company required to pay a fee, pays an annual membership fee (the 'membership fee') for a 12-month period commencing 1 July each year (the 'financial year').
13. The Board determines the membership fee and may permit Members to pay in a lump sum or by instalments.
14. The Board may permit new Members to pay the membership fee on a pro rata basis, relative to the time of their joining the Company in the financial year.

Rights of student Members

17. A financial student Member is entitled to all the privileges of membership except the right to be elected as
- a) a Director of the Company; or
 - b) A Branch President or Branch Vice President.

B

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

C. GENERAL MEETINGS

Types of Company meetings

1. General meetings include the Annual General Meeting (“AGM”).

AGMs

2. The Company holds an AGM at least once in every calendar year. If possible, the AGM takes place within 90 days, but in any event no later than five (5) months, of the end of the Company’s financial year.
3. The Board can cancel any AGM that it convenes by giving not less than 48 hours’ notice to those Members entitled to notice of the meeting.
4. The business of an AGM can include any of the following, even if not referred to in the notice of meeting:
 - a) consideration of the annual financial report, Directors’ report and auditor’s report;
 - b) confirmation or election of Directors; and
 - c) appointment of the auditor.

General meetings

5. General meetings may be called by any three Directors.
6. General meetings of the Company must be held in accordance with the Act, which includes, but is not limited to, their being held:
 - a) for a proper purpose; and
 - b) at a reasonable time and place.

Request by Members for a general meeting

7. The Board must call and arrange to hold a general meeting in a manner as described in the ByLaws on the request of Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast at a general meeting.

Failure by the Board to call a meeting

8. If within 21 days of the request given to the Company, the Board does not call a general meeting, Members with more than 50% of the total voting rights of all the Members who requested the meeting, may call and arrange to hold a general meeting in a manner as described in the ByLaws.

Content of notices of AGMs and of general meetings

9. Notice of a Company general meeting must be given to all Members entitled to vote and must contain all the information and be sent in a manner as described in the ByLaws.

When notice is given

10. A notice of meeting sent by post, facsimile or electronic mail is taken to be given when it meets the conditions as outlined in the ByLaws.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

Procedures at AGMs and general meetings

Quorum

11. The quorum for a general meeting of the Company is 50 Members present in person or by proxy.
12. The Company's meeting may not proceed unless the manner for determining the quorum as contained in the ByLaws has been followed.

Adjourning a meeting

13. With the consent of, or if directed by, a meeting at which a quorum is present, the person chairing the meeting may adjourn the meeting but no business other than any unfinished business from the adjourned meeting is to be dealt with at the resumed meeting.
14. Unless a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the meeting's business.
15. When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as if it were an original meeting.

Chairing general meetings

16. The National President, or in the National President's absence National Vice President, must chair every general meeting of the Company.
17. If neither the National President nor National Vice President is present within 15 minutes of the time for the commencement of the meeting, or if neither of them is willing to chair the meeting, the Members present must elect a Member to chair the meeting.

Voting at an AGM and at general meetings

18. At a general meeting on any resolution or special resolution, each Member holds one vote; and
 - a) the person chairing the meeting has a vote as a Member of the Company, but does not have a casting vote;
 - b) a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is demanded;
 - c) in the case of an equal number of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the resolution is lost; and
 - d) other rules as outlined in the ByLaws.

Polls

19. A poll may be demanded on any resolution in the manner as described in the ByLaws.

Proxies

20. A Member of the Company who is entitled to attend and cast a vote at a general meeting of the Company may appoint a person as the Member's proxy to attend and vote for the Member at a general meeting.
21. An appointment of a proxy is valid if it is signed by the Member of the Company making the appointment and contains the following information:

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

- a) the Member's name, address and membership number;
- b) the Company's name;
- c) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and
- d) the meeting or meetings at which the proxy may be used.

22. The instrument and the rules appointing a proxy are contained in the ByLaws.

Minutes of general meetings

23. a) The Board must keep minutes in which it records within 1 month of meetings, the proceedings and resolutions of the Company's Members.
- b) The minutes will be signed within a reasonable time by the person chairing the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the person chairing the next succeeding meeting.

Members' access to minutes

24. a) The Company must ensure that the minutes for the meetings of its Members are open for inspection by Members free of charge.
- b) A Member of the Company may ask the Company in writing for a copy of any minutes of a meeting of the Company's Members or an extract of the minutes as outlined in the ByLaws.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

D. THE BOARD

Composition

1. There must be not less than seven nor more than nine Directors of the Board, of whom one will be the National President and one will be National Vice President.
2. One Director's position will be reserved for a Member of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent.
3. All Directors will be elected by the membership as a whole in accordance with the ByLaws.
4. A Director must be a financial Member of the Company.

Eligibility requirements for Directors

5. The eligibility requirements for membership of the Board shall be:
 - a) a Member or Life Member of the Company; and
 - b) not be an employee of the Company;
 - c) the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Nominee to be self-declared as outlined in the ByLaws.

Terms of office

6. The National President is elected by the members for a 3-year term and will commence office from the conclusion of the AGM at which their election is declared and terminate at the conclusion of the third following AGM. At the end of that term, the National President is:
 - a) subject to Clause D9 eligible for re-election for one further consecutive term, but
 - b) not eligible for election as National Vice President or as a Director for the next consecutive term.
 - c) subject to Clause D9 eligible to stand for any Board position after a period of at least twelve months following completion of their term.
7. The National Vice President is elected by the members for a 3-year term and will commence office from the conclusion of the AGM at which their election is declared and terminate at the conclusion of the third following AGM. At the end of that term, the National Vice President is, subject to Clause D9 eligible for one further consecutive term as National Vice President.
8. Each Director is elected by the Members for a three-year term and will commence office from the conclusion of the AGM at which their election is declared and will terminate at the conclusion of the third following AGM. A retiring Director who is eligible may stand for re-election.
9. Subject to Clause D11, no Director can be a Member of the Board in any capacity for more than 3 consecutive terms.
10. A Member who has been a Director for three consecutive terms is not eligible to be elected or appointed to the position of Director until at least 1 full term has passed since they last held office as a Director of the Company.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

11. If a Member is appointed to fill a casual vacancy as a Director, and is endorsed as a Director at the next Annual General Meeting for the remainder of the term of the Director they replaced in accordance with Clause G9, the period from their initial appointment to the closing of the AGM at which their term replacing a predecessor expires will not be counted in determining term limits in accordance with Clause D9.
- 11A. The following special provisions shall apply to facilitate the transition from the constitutional arrangements in place prior to adoption of the current changes:
 - a) Notwithstanding Clauses D1, D6 & D7, the National President and two National Vice Presidents in office at the adoption of these amendments to the Constitution in 2018 shall serve out their terms applicable at the time of their election provided they remain Directors of the company. Only after the existing terms are served shall the requirements of Clauses D6 & D7 be applied.
 - b) For Directors in office at the time of the amendment to Clause D9 the maximum term they may serve shall remain 12 years;
 - c) All Directors in place at the time of adoption of these changes in 2018 shall continue in office in accordance with their previous schedule of terms.

When no Director remains subject to this Clause 11A it will be deleted and replaced by the words 'Deleted (date)'.

Powers and duties of the Board

Management by the Board

12. The business of the Company is to be managed by or under the direction of the Board.
13. The Board may exercise all the powers of the Company except any powers that the Act or this Constitution requires the Company to exercise in general meetings.

Board to keep minutes

14. The Board will keep minutes in which it records within 1 month:
 - a) all appointments of Officers;
 - b) the names of Members of the Board who attend meetings of the Board and general meetings;
 - c) proceedings and resolutions of Board and general meetings;
 - d) proceedings and resolutions of all meetings of Committees of the Board;
 - e) resolutions passed by Directors without a meeting; and
 - f) all delegations of the Board's powers to national committees and boards of practice.
15. The minutes of Board meetings will be signed within a reasonable time by the person chairing the meeting at which the proceedings were held or by the person chairing the next succeeding meeting.
16. The Board must ensure that minutes of the passing of a resolution without a meeting are signed by a Director within a reasonable time after the resolution is passed.

Attorneys

17. The Board may sign a power of attorney, appointing any person or persons to act for the Company in the same way that it may act.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

18. A power of attorney:
 - a) may contain provisions for the protection and convenience of persons dealing with the attorney as the Board sees fit; and
 - b) may authorise the attorney to delegate all or any of the powers vested in them.
19. The Board will be advised in writing at its next meeting of any actions taken under the power of attorney.

Board Committees

20. The Board may establish and delegate any of its powers to Committees of the Board consisting of such Directors and other persons as the Board thinks fit and may from time to time revoke such delegations. All such Committees must be chaired by a Director and operate in accordance with any applicable ByLaws. The Board must ensure that Committees address the areas of finance, risk, ethics and regulation.

Conflicts of interest

22. A Director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered by the Directors:
 - a) must not vote on the matter;
 - b) must not be present while the matter is being considered at a meeting; and
 - c) must not be counted in a quorum for a meetingexcept in the circumstances set out in the Act.
23. A Director must not be taken to be interested or to have been at any time interested in a contract or proposed contract merely because:
 - a) where the contract or proposed contract relates to a loan to the Company, the Director has guaranteed or joined in guaranteeing the repayment of the loan or any part of the loan; or
 - b) where the contract or proposed contract has been or will be made with or for the benefit of, or on behalf of a body corporate that is related to the Company and the Director is a Director of that body corporate.

24. The office of a Director of the Company is vacated if the person holding the office:
 - a) is disqualified from the management of corporations under part 2D.6 of the Act;
 - b) cannot manage the affairs of the Company because of mental incapacity and is a person to whose estate or property a personal representative or trustee has been appointed as an administrator;
 - c) resigns her or his office in writing to the Board;
 - d) ceases to be a financial Member of the Company;
 - e) is convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment for a period greater than 12 months;
 - f) is absent with or without permission of the Board from three consecutive Board meetings unless at the next meeting the Board resolves otherwise;
 - g) becomes an employee of the Company.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

Removal and substitution of Directors

25. The Company may by resolution at a general meeting, but not otherwise, remove any Director from office in accordance with section 203D of the Corporations Act.

Alternate Directors

26. A Director is not entitled to appoint an Alternate Director.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

E. OFFICERS OF THE COMPANY

Company Secretary

1. In accordance with the requirements of the Act, the Board must appoint a Secretary and ensure that the person appointed is aware of the responsibilities of the office as a Statutory Officer of the Company.
2. The Board determines the terms and conditions under which the Secretary holds office.

E

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

F. MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

Calling Board meetings

1. A Board meeting may be called by any three Directors giving reasonable notice individually to every other Director.

Chairing Board meetings

2. If at a Board meeting, neither the National President nor the National Vice President is present within the time set down to commence the meeting, or if neither is willing to chair the meeting, the Members of the Board present must elect one of themselves to chair the meeting.

Quorum at Board meetings

 - a) Five Directors in office and entitled to vote on any motion that may be moved at the meeting in relation to that matter shall constitute a quorum and a quorum must be present at all times during the meeting.
 - b) If a vacancy occurs in the office of a Director, the remaining Directors may act but, if the number of remaining Directors is less than the minimum number set out in the Constitution, they may act only for the purpose of filling vacancies or of convening a general meeting of the Company.

Passing of Directors' resolutions

 - a) A resolution of the Directors must be passed by a majority of the votes cast by Directors who are entitled to vote and who vote on the resolution.
 - b) The person chairing the meeting has a vote as a Member of the Board but does not have a casting vote.

Action without a meeting

 - a) The Directors of the Company may pass a resolution without a Board meeting being held if all the Directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign a document containing a statement that they are in favour of the resolution set out in the document.
 - b) Separate copies of a document may be used for signing by Directors if the wording of the resolution and statement is identical in each copy.
 - c) The resolution is passed when the last Director entitled to sign signs the document containing the statement.
 - d) An electronic transmission of a copy of the document that appears to be signed by a Director is taken to have been signed by that Director and is a copy for the purposes of signing a power of attorney.

Meetings held with the use of technology

 - a) A Board meeting may be called or held using any technology consented to by all the Directors. The consent must be given annually and may stand for one year. A Director may only withdraw such consent within a reasonable period before the meeting.
 - b) Each Director attending a meeting using technology must have access to the technology by which the meeting is taking place.
 - c) Each Director participating in the meeting must be able to communicate concurrently with all other Directors.

F

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

G. ELECTIONS OF DIRECTORS

The Returning Officer

1. The Board will appoint a Returning Officer to conduct elections prior to each AGM for all vacant Director positions and Director positions that will become vacant at the conclusion of the AGM.
2. The Returning Officer will carry out the elections following the timing, procedures and Director annual rotation requirements contained in the ByLaws.
3. In accordance with the ByLaws, the Returning Officer has the power to impose penalties and issue statements but may not disqualify a candidate who is eligible to stand.

Nominations

4. Subject to Clauses D9 & D10, to be eligible for nomination as a Director, a person must:
 - a) be a financial Member or Life Member of the Company;
 - b) not be an employee of the Company or subject to any of the other factors that would cause them to vacate the role of Director in Clause D24 if elected;
 - c) submit a brief account of their interest and suitability for election to the vacant position; and
 - d) give a signed consent in writing to act as a Director if elected.
5. Persons wishing to nominate shall provide the information as contained in the ByLaws.

Voting

6. Each financial Member shall be entitled to cast one vote for each vacancy.
7. Voting may be carried out by postal or electronic means where the Board authorises, providing the procedures in the ByLaws are adhered to.

Filling a casual vacancy in the position of Director

8. The Board may at any time appoint a Member to fill a casual vacancy on the Board providing:
 - a) the Member to be appointed satisfies the eligibility criteria for membership of the Board;
 - b) the term of the appointment is to the end of the first Annual General Meeting following the appointment, at which, if the predecessor's term would not then have expired, an election shall be held to fill the position for the remainder of the predecessor's term, or if the term would have expired a normal vacancy election would proceed. The Member appointed to fill the casual vacancy, if otherwise eligible, shall be entitled to nominate to be elected to fill the position.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

H. NATIONAL COMMITTEES

Authority for the establishment of National Committees

1. The Board may establish national committees to address matters in support of the Objects in Clause A3 and determine through the ByLaws the purposes, structure, terms, conditions, reporting obligations and all other matters related to the operation and administration of such Committees.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

I. BRANCHES

1. There may be branches of the Company.
2. At the adoption of this Constitution, the branches of the Company are the Australian Capital Territory Branch, the New South Wales Branch, the Northern Territory Branch, the North Queensland Branch, the Queensland Branch, the South Australian Branch, the Tasmanian Branch, the Victorian Branch and the Western Australian Branch or such other names as the Branches may be known as, from time to time.
3. The Board may create new branches, modify branches or dissolve branches.
4. The criteria for the establishment of a new branch and dissolution of an existing branch must be provided for in the ByLaws.
5. The ByLaws must provide for the function, operation, administration, reporting and funding arrangements of the branches.

1. The Board shall adhere to the following principles in investing, reinvesting, purchasing, acquiring, exchanging, selling and managing its invested assets. The Board shall avoid speculation, looking instead to the prudent disposition of the funds, considering the probable income, as well as the probable safety of the Company's capital in line with the Company's risk management policy.

Loans

2. The Company shall not make any loan of money or property to, or guarantee the obligation of, any Director or Officer.

Related party transactions

3. Each Officer of the Company (including each Director) must comply with the duties prescribed by the Act and at general law.

Insurance

4. The Company may pay or agree to pay a premium in respect of a contract insuring a person who is or has been an Officer of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company against any liability incurred by the person as an Officer of the Company or a related body corporate except a liability (other than one for legal costs) arising out of:
 - a) conduct involving a wilful breach of duty in relation to the Company; or
 - b) a contravention of section 182 or section 183 of the Act and in the case of a Director, any premium paid under this paragraph is not remuneration.

Director voting on contract of insurance

5. Despite anything in this Constitution, a Director is not precluded from voting in respect of any contract or proposed contract of insurance, merely because the contract insures or would insure the Director against a liability incurred by the Director as an Officer of the Company or of a related body corporate.

Indemnity

 - a) To the extent permitted by the Act, the Company may indemnify:
 - i) every person who is or has been an Officer of the Company; and
 - ii) where the Board considers it appropriate to do so, any person who is or has been an Officer of a related body corporate of the Company;against any liability incurred by that person in his or her capacity as an Officer of the Company or of the related body corporate (as the case may be).
 - b) The circumstances in which the Company must not indemnify an Officer, or an Officer of a related body corporate, are set out in section 199A of the Act.

Inspection

7. Every Director has the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records and documents, and to inspect the physical properties of the Company.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

Compensation

8. The Members at the AGM may approve a total annual figure for the remuneration of the Directors on a recommendation of a resolution of the Board. If so, and in no other case, the Directors may, by resolution of the Board, be entitled to be paid out of the funds of the Company, as remuneration for their ordinary services as Directors.
9. Subject to obligations under section 202B of the Act, the Board may at its discretion, advise the membership at the AGM the fees to be paid to each individual Director.
10. The Directors may be paid reasonable travel, accommodation and other expenses incurred as a result of their attendance at meetings of Directors or general meetings of the Company and otherwise in the execution of their duties as Directors.

 - a) The Board may make, alter and rescind ByLaws not inconsistent with this Constitution.
 - b) The Board cannot make, alter or rescind a ByLaw relating to elections between the call for nominations and the declaration of the election, unless the Returning Officer has requested it and it is in the terms proposed by the Returning Officer.

Company seal

19. The Company may have a common seal.
20. If the Company has a common seal, the Board must provide for its safe keeping and use.
21. Where a document has been executed by fixing the Seal to the document, it may only be done on the prior authority of the Board and the Board shall be advised in writing at its next meeting.

AASW CONSTITUTION 2018

Constitution amendments

 - a) The adoption of any amendment to this Constitution shall require approval by special resolution requiring support of at least three-quarters of the votes cast by the Members present in person or by proxy entitled to vote on the resolution.
 - b) If the Board determines that the proposed Constitutional amendment(s) shall be submitted to the membership at the next AGM or at a general meeting called for that purpose, the Board shall notify all voting Members of the proposed amendments in the notice of meeting.
 - c) If the notice is sent by post, it is deemed to be given three (3) days after it is posted.
 - d) If a Member does not receive a notice of a meeting, by accident, this does not invalidate the meeting or the resolutions passed at the meeting.

Inspection of the Company books

23. The Directors of the Company, or the Company by a resolution passed at a general meeting, may authorise a Member to inspect the books of the Company.

Winding up the Company

24. On the winding up of the Company, each Member of the Company undertakes to contribute to the Company's assets an amount not exceeding the sum of $50. The Member's obligations extend as follows:
 - a) for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted while that person was a Member;
 - b) for payment of the debts and liabilities of the Company contracted for a period of 1 year after that person was a Member;
 - c) for the costs, charges and expenses of winding up the Company; and
 - d) for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.
25. After payment of all liabilities, the assets of the Company will be given to some other company or institution:
 - a) whose Objects are similar to the Objects of the Company; and
 - b) which prohibits the distribution of income or property to its Members.
26. The Members of the Company in a general meeting will decide which company or institution will receive the money or property at or before dissolution. If the Members fail to make a decision, the Supreme Court of the Australian Capital Territory or any other court of competent jurisdiction may decide which company or institution will receive the assets.
