WHAT’S THE FUTURE? CREATING A FUTURE FOR A MORE SOCIALLY JUST SOCIETY

Tackling the issues and strategies that will disrupt or pave the way to a more inclusive and fair society

Q&A Presentation

The Australian Association of Social Workers (Queensland) and QUT’s School of Public Health and Social Work are proud to present the second annual panel presentation that will this year take the form of a Q&A.

This event is an opportunity to participate in an egalitarian conversation and debate around the issues and strategies that stand in the way of – or enable – the achievement of fairer and more inclusive societies. There will be a localised focus with an opportunity to discuss key issues that will impact on the future of Queensland.

This year’s Q&A panel includes:

- Jatinder Kaur, Consultant, JK Diversity Consultants
- Professor Robert Lonne, Discipline Leader, Social Work and Human Services, QUT
- Professor Greg Marston, Social Policy, QUT
- Karyn Walsh, QCOSS President and Micah Projects
- Jessica Wild, Student, Bachelor of Social Work, QUT

Submit your questions

If you are attending the Q&A and wish to ask the panel a question relevant to the theme of the evening, please send your question to: aaswqld@aasw.asn.au

Please ensure your question does not exceed 80 words and is submitted by no later than 18 October 2013.

Thursday 24th October 2013

Program

5.15pm Arrivals and registration
5.30pm Q&A
6.30pm Drinks and canapés
7.00pm AASW (Qld) General Meeting

Location

Institute of Health and Biomedical Innovation
Q Block, Level 4, Seminar Room
60 Musk Avenue (corner of Blamey Street and Musk Avenue)
Kelvin Grove Urban Village

To register for this free event, please visit the link:

REGISTER NOW

Parking

On-street parking or on campus at QUT
Please note that places for both events are strictly limited.

Registrations close Friday, 18 October 2013 or until such time as places are filled.

For further information please visit www.aasw.asn.au/events/event/aaswqld-qut-social-work-panel-presentation-and-queensland-branch-general-meeting_copy

AASW (Qld) GENERAL MEETING

Following the Q&A session and interval, the Australian Association of Social Workers (Qld) welcomes members to attend a general meeting. The meeting commences at 7.00pm and will include a review of the branch’s activities for the past 12 months and the presentation of the Annual Frank Pavlin Memorial Award. There will also be an opportunity to vote in the election of Branch Management Committee members.