

DAY 2: Sunday 24 November, 11.00–12.30

13 Social media and social work
(Including launch of AASW online learning system)

Stephen Brand – Senior Social Policy Manager, AASW

Amalia Ridwan – Media and Communications Officer, AASW

Jasmine Corbo – RMIT social work student and member of Social Work Alliance Project (SWAP) social media group

Chris Sagewood – RMIT social work student and member of Social Work Alliance Project (SWAP) social media group

Jordan Lockett – RMIT social work student and member of Social Work Alliance Project (SWAP) social media group

Juliet Summers – South Eastern Centre Against Sexual Assault (SECASA)

Jane Britt – CPD Program Officer, AASW

Linda Richardson – Senior Manager, Education & Knowledge Development, AASW

Three social media experiences all linked with the principles and objectives of the social work profession. The professional association for social work in Australia, a student group and a centre providing services to people who have been sexually assaulted share their social media experiences including goals, challenges and outcomes.