Register as an AASW Accredited Social Worker today!

Stand out to employers, clients and colleagues when you register as an AASW Accredited Social Worker.

By registering for, and displaying one of the two AASW Trade Marks for Accredited Social Workers, you are instantly identified as a Social Work professional who:

- Has an AASW Accredited Social Work qualification (or overseas equivalent)
- Is a member of the professional body for Social Workers in Australia
- Makes a commitment to ethical practice
- Is formally accountable to the AASW Code of Ethics
- Commits to and completes a minimum amount of Continuing Professional Development annually
- Is covered by professional indemnity and public liability insurance (NB. members must ensure they 'op in' for insurance)

The AASW Accredited Trade Marks strengthen the regulation, reputation and professional status of qualified Social Workers in Australia.

Registration for an Accredited Trade Mark will identify you as belonging to a distinct professional group with high ethical and practice standards and will offer you a form of title protection.

Register today to ensure you get the professional recognition you deserve!
