

Social Work Futures

June 22-23, 2017 University of South Australia, City West Campus

Setting the agenda for a sustainable Social Work future

How can Social Workers drive the agendas for

Sustaining reflective social work practice through supervision

Recognising professional practice and accountability

Reclaiming professional judgement and ethical deliberation

Preserving personalisation and human rights in social care

Draft Program

Thursday June 22
8.00am	Site Open
8.00	Arrival/Registration/Networking -BH 209 Entry though rear doors on level 2
9:15 BH 209	Symposium Opening Acknowledgement of Country and Housekeeping: Nicole Moulding
9.30 BH 209	Welcome on behalf of UniSA: Kurt Lushington
9:40 BH 209	Opening Address: Charlotte Williams OBE Rethinking social work futures: demonstrating impact in a changing world
10.40 BH 209	Morning Tea / Networking
11:00 BH 209	Keynote Address: Anita Philips Regulation of the Social Work Profession; Options
Stream	Reflective Social Work	Practice & Accountability	Judgement & Ethical Deliberation	Personalisation & Human Rights	Personalisation & Human Rights
11.50-12.30	Amanda Nickson Peer Group Supervision Using Technology	Patricia Rayment & Sue Macdonald Capabilities Framework	Lisa Gilbert & Marion Champion Documenting complexity in social work practice in two public hospitals	Nicole Moulding Gendered violence, trauma-informed care & social work	Lia Bryant Care in the Country: Uncertain Futures
12.30	Lunch / Networking – The Forum, Jeffrey Smart Building
	Special Interest Groups Networking – World’s End Hotel, Hindley Street

This Symposium has been made possible by the generous support of Flinders University, UniSA, Health SA, Department for Child Protection and AASW

Social Work Futures

June 22-23, 2017 University of South Australia, City West Campus

	Special Interest group networking Council of International Fellowship	Special Interest group networking Private Practice	Special Interest group networking Reflective Supervision/Networking	Special Interest group networking Funding Models	Special Interest group networking Social Work Regulation
1.30 BH 209	Keynote Address: Amy Cleland
2.20 BH 209	Keynote Address: Lorna Hallahan Forming future generations: social work education in Australia
3.10 BH 209	Afternoon Tea / Networking
3.30 BH 209	Book launch: Charlotte Williams Social Work in a Globalised World edited by Livholts, M and Bryant, L.
3.45	Close of Day: Nicole Moulding
	Casual networking – The World’s End Hotel
6.00pm to 7.30pm	South Australian Social Worker of the Year Awards – Kerry Packer Civic Gallery, Hawke Building

Friday June 23

8.00am	Site Open
8.00	Arrival/Registration/Networking- BH 209 Entry through rear doors on level 2
9:15 BH 209	Symposium Opening Acknowledgement of Country and Housekeeping: Nicole Moulding
9:30 BH 209	Opening Address: Simon Schrapel Child Protection – An insoluble problem or an opportunity for bold thinking?
10.30 BH 209	Morning Tea / Networking
10.50 BH 209	Keynote Address: Donna McAuliffe What Social Work now needs to do to expand practice competence by incorporating the ‘networked life’.

Social Work Futures

June 22-23, 2017 University of South Australia, City West Campus

Stream	Reflective Social Work	Practice & Accountability	Judgement & Ethical Deliberation	Personalisation & Human Rights	Poster Presentations	Reflective Social Work
11.50	Fiona Glover & Paula Redpath Supervisors are made not found	Penny Kelly CAMHS Social Work team working together to create a bright future	Carmella Bastian The Capabilities Approach: An emerging framework in child protection	Margie Pitcher & Lenore de la Perrelle Access, choice and control for vulnerable older people in the	Poster Presentations	Jennifer Swan Lived Experience Practitioners
12.30	Lunch / Networking – The Forum, Jeffrey Smart Building
	Special Interest Groups Networking – World’s End Hotel, Hindley Street
	Special Interest group networking Council of International Fellowship	Special Interest group networking Private Practice	Special Interest group networking Reflective Supervision/Networking	Special Interest group networking Funding Models	Special Interest group networking Social Work Regulation
Stream	Reflective Social Work	Practice & Accountability	Judgement & Ethical Deliberation	Personalisation & Human Rights	Poster Presentations	Personalisation & Human Rights
1.30-2.10	Patricia Muncey & Mary Duncan Student supervision in the 21st century from the perspective of students, agencies and universities.	Mary Hood & Brenda Clare Credentialing Social Work across the Profession and Employment; A way forward in recognizing skills expertise and experience?	Lynne Harrold Working with older adults in the private sector: emerging opportunities for social workers	Shirley Young & Donna Broadhurst Walking Together: Knowing My Fear, Knowing Your Fear	Poster Presentations

Social Work Futures

June 22-23, 2017 University of South Australia, City West Campus

2.15-2.55	Mark McCarthy Building a Culture for Student Placements in SA Health	Shephard Masocha Simulation Learning Tool	Sophie Diamandi Exploring Ethical Decision-Making frameworks in challenging times when confronting an ethical dilemma in social work practice	Christine Craik Family and Domestic Violence Policy Changes in Victoria	Poster Presentations	Lorna Hallahan Universalisation and personalisation in the NDIS: a clear role for social work
3.00-3.40	Gina Roberts Implementing a reflective practice framework in corrections	Mary Hood Peer supervision; a workshop on how to make it work.		Deb Lee Adelaide Primary Health Network (PHN); community health service provision and how social workers can collaborate.		Anna Kemp Leave No Woman Behind – Seeds of Affinity: Community Support for Criminalised Women
3.45-4.05 BH 209	Afternoon Tea / Networking
4.05 BH 209	Reflections and Plans of Action - Panel Presentation hosted by Kathryn McEwen
5.00	Close of Day: Nicole Moulding

Download the app. Read the Abstracts

Keep up with program updates, see speaker biographies, network with social media and direct messaging, plan and save your schedule.....start the conversation!

The Social Work Futures App is now available on iTunes or Android Play store.

Search: socialworkfutures