

Application Process for Accreditation as a Mental Health Social Worker

Timelines for Application Process

The timelines for applications being received by the AASW to final determination (steps B to D) is up to 3 months, assuming all documents are completed and ready for assessment.

Any delay caused by missing/incomplete documents or slowness in responding to AASW's requests for further information may cause this time period to be extended.